

This Resolution will allow the County to be reimbursed by bond proceeds for any expenses incurred towards the completion of the EOC/Elections and Registration Building prior to the issuance of the General Obligation Bonds. The General Obligation Bonds will be issued this winter so the County can begin construction in March 2010.